

ANYtime and Keiroze

Since the early '80-ies New York's Stonewall Inn riots are commemorated in The Netherlands annually with the celebration of 'Pink Saturday' (pink being the color used in The Netherlands for gays, lesbians, bisexuals and transgenders, where the rainbow colors are used in The States). In 2010 the City of Amersfoort will be hosting Pink Saturday. Celebrations are organized by the Keiroze Foundation.

As a prelude to the event, the Keiroze team is currently working with ANYtime on organizing a 'pink' day during the ANYtime period. On June, 13th 2009 there will be a live exchange between glt's in NY/Brooklyn and Amersfoort. A program for the day is in the making. Its focus will be on gay men and women's position in society, and in politics in particular - in NY and The Netherlands: what are similarities, what are differences. Key words for the program contents: gay issues today, the times of Harvey Milk, the echo of Milk in today's politics.

We invite the Brooklyn gay community to participate in the festivities. At this moment we are looking for glbt's in Brooklyn who are interested in starting up email exchange with a 'pen pal' in Amersfoort for the period April – June, 2009. Go to <http://community.livejournal.com/anyinpink>

Join us, and make ANYtime even more colorful!
